GOING HOME.
"How are you, Crockett, to-day, old fellow?"
"Just as you see me," said he;
"The doctor says that I can't get well,
And what is to be—?"

The cabin was rough and the roof was low. Its floor was the native sod. And there on his bunk, with fire-hot eyes, Lay Crockett, approaching his God.

Crockett was smitten to a minor's camp. And some of us "boys" were there; He wasn't an angel—he wasn't a scamp. But human as most of us are.

"I thought," said he, "in a dream just now, That I was away back home, With apple and peach trees all in a blow, While fire-fits danced in the glow."

"It looked so funny to see the trees So tall and the leaves so broad; To see them dance in the moon-lit breeze, Their shadows along the road."

"But, as I was saying, I thought it was A-going along by the fence, To the house that I left in '53— And never been back there since—"

"For you see I came out, from Tennessee, To the coast, a good while ago, And I've always intended once more to see, The old place—but you know—you know—"

And here he seemed to wander away From that he wanted to tell, But said ere long, "I was going to say— What was it? Oh, yes, boys!—well!"

"I was just coming up to the very spot Where mother had kissed me to go, And, somehow, it seemed, I either was shot Or stung with a terrible blow."

"I couldn't move; but mother came out, I saw her quite plain, with the blue veil, And soon as I saw her, I uttered a shout, 'Mother, I'm coming home!'"

He said no more, and he never will. We buried him up in the brush, Where shadows fall from the giant hill. On his grave, with a quiet hush, (Sighing.)

A Chicago divine said, in a sermon last Sunday: "Yonder on the cross, amid the storm of the mountains, the eagle hangs her nest. She craves for her offspring the elements of royalty and power, and takes turns with the thunder in singing them to sleep, and with the lightning in watching their repose. She tears up her nest, and leaves them to cling to the crags. When they flutter and fall, she swoops under them and bears them up, repeating the process until matured in the struggle, they can mount above the storm."

Some one well says: "I would not give much for your religion unless it can be seen. Lamps do not talk but they do shine. A light-house sends no drums, it beats no gong, and yet far over the water its friendly spark can be seen by the mariner. So let your actions shine out in your religion. Let the main sermon of your life be illustrated by your conduct, and it shall not fail to be illustrious."

DEATH OF MR. ED. J. BELSER.
We regret to announce the death of Mr. Ed. J. Belser, son of the late Col. James B. Belser, which occurred in this city on Sunday night, about 9 o'clock. We understand that he died of pneumonia. At this writing we are not advised when his funeral will take place. Mr. B. was a young Englishman, and was well known to the community. He was a member of the City Court on the charge of shooting Wm. H. Hogan—Montgomery Mail.

A Rich Prize.
From the Troy Times, Jan. 14.
Some months since we published a statement to the effect that Miss Gray, a milliner of Fort Mifflin, had become the fortunate heir to $100,000, which her lover, a young Englishman, had willed to her upon his dying bed. The main fact in the case—the heirship—is true; but we now learn that it was not the lover, but to his father, that Miss Gray inherited the fortune. It seems that the lover on his return to England, like too many others, proved inconstant, and married another lady, against his father's will. Whether it was remorse at his faithlessness, or from other cause, certain it is the young man died in about a year after his marriage, and left all his property to his father. The old gentleman was without heirs, and not having become reconciled to his daughter-in-law, upon his death left one-half of his property to the government of England, and the remaining half, $100,000, to Miss Gray, the Fort Mifflin milliner. The sum was so large that many people were disposed to doubt its truth when it first appeared in print. But Miss Gray has already received the first installment of her fortune, a trifle of $5,000,000, from the British Consul in New York. On Tuesday last she received a dispatch from the Consul, informing that the money awaited her order, and on the following day she left Fort Mifflin for New York, where it was paid over to her. Lucky girl.

DEPLORABLE CONDITION IN SOUTH CAROLINA.—The following is an extract from a letter to a gentleman in Baltimore. The writer is one of the most estimable gentlemen in South Carolina. It dated January 13, 1870:

What is to become of this poor State nobody can do more than conjecture. You have, perhaps, not known that, at the end of the war, the old bank bills brought some ten cents on the dollar. I mean the bank of the State. I had a good many of them, and was glad to get that. Gov. Scott and his friends bought up all these bills, though the negro Legislature to redeem them by State bonds at par, and soon after to enact that these bonds, principle and interest, shall be paid in gold. And so it is in everything.

"They sit for months instead of weeks, as formerly, and vote themselves six dollars a day, instead of three, as before. Five or ten dollars, I hear, will buy any vote in the Legislature for anything."

Stanton.
The following announcement by the New York Democrat may not be true, but it ought to be. Alluding to the diabolical Stanton, the organ of "red-hot" democracy says:

"The once robust man went to his own death, and though the particulars of his demise are as yet not fully public, enough is known to prove that in a fit of terror, when he trembled like a leaf shaken by the storm at the ghost of the murdered woman who stood before his eyes, with whom he formerly affiliated politically, and who is known as the soul of truth and honor—that since the murder of Mrs. Suratt he, Stanton, had not known one hour of peace."

Said he, when speaking of the matter: "Judge, it is terrible! That woman was murdered to appease the wrath of a party! And I was the coward who struck the blow for those who desired this wrong. But I have suffered—O, God! I have suffered—how I do suffer. Every hour of the day I see her and her innocent face. Every night I see her on the scaffold—swinging in air—bound—struggling—dying! Every night of my life I stand face to face with her—I hear her daughter's prayers for justice—I see her in her coffin—I see the court which sentenced her dancing like devils in hell, and saying to me—'you! you! you did it! You, Edwin M. Stanton—Edwin M. Stanton, compelled us to murder your victim, and we will murder you!'"

Those who knew him from the murder of Mrs. Suratt till the day of his death, know how he suffered. He would waken from sleep, and cry out like a child for some one—'O! take her away!'"

KENTUCKY AND THE FIFTEENTH AMENDMENT.—The Courier Journal says the negroes of that State have decreased from 236,167 in 1860, to 140,445 in 1869, and that the adoption of the Fifteenth Amendment will not make the slightest change in the political status of Kentucky. It estimates the negro vote at 38,000, and says if they vote the Radical ticket in 1870, it will alter the result even in a single Legislative District. The principal black vote will be in Louisville and Jefferson county, 5,300; Fayette, 4,000; Bourbon, 900; Christian, 1700; Logan, 1,000; Madison, 1,000; Shelby, 1,500; and Warren, 1,000.

From Georgia.
SAVANNAH, Jan. 31.—In regard to the reported assassination of a revenue officer, the Morning News of to-day contains the following particulars, which were brought out by the coroner's inquest, composed of leading citizens of this county: It appears from the evidence as stated by our correspondent that the deceased committed suicide, as his own revolver was found within a few feet of his body, with one chamber discharged. It will be remembered, that the agent on pistol shot. The cause of the rash act is unknown, but already the unfortunate man's death has been turned into another "rebel outrage," and the information has probably ere this been sent to Washington and Atlanta. The Agent of this city will publish to-morrow proof conclusive that Brunt, assistant assessor of revenue at Blackshear, committed suicide, and was not assassinated as alleged in a dispatch sent forward from this city some days ago.

AN INDIAN STORY.
The Pot of Gold in Wabassa Lake. A correspondent of the Detroit Free Press writes as follows:

"About three miles from the village of Greenville, in the county of Montcalm, State of Michigan, is a small lake now commonly known as Wabassa's Lake. It is a handsome sheet of water, with a fine shore free from swamps or brush, affording a pleasant resort to the lovers of piscatorial sports. There is a romantic yet truthful, history connected with it which sounds more like an Indian tradition of centuries ago than an actual occurrence of fifty years since. While on an excursion a few days ago I gathered the following story, and its truthfulness has since been vouched for by other settlers: A tribe of Indians were then encamped on the shore of the lake near its outlet, a stream of the same, and had just been paid by the government quite a large amount of gold and silver, which they took to their camp, as was their custom, undivided, held in their charge, by their Chief, Wabassa."

On arriving at their camp, and spreading their gaily-covered blankets out adorningly, together with their trinkets purchased at the station, some of the tribe, warmed more or less with "fire water," demanded their portion of the gold. Disputes arose as to the relative share of each. Some claimed more than a share, claiming to have contributed more to the protection of general good, glory or dignity of the tribe. High words were about to be followed by bloodshed, when their chief demanded silence, and proposed to them to wait till the morrow should cool their excited brains, and they could listen to reason and words of counsel from the older men. A truce was finally effected, and quiet once more reigned throughout the camp, when the Chief, regarding the gold as a cause of evil, instead of a blessing, stole quietly out, carrying the gold with him and entering a canoe paddled quickly and noiselessly to the centre of the lake, where, he consigned pot and gold to the deep waters of the lake.

In the morning he did not deny what he had done, but was in the midst of a speech, telling them of their folly in being like the pale-faces, slaves to gold, when with a loud whoop, the entire band set upon him and mutilating his body in a horrible manner. His grave is still shown, and many have seen his son return, within the last twenty years, to mourn over it. Greedy hands have often sought for the lost gold, but to no purpose, for the waters are many hundred feet in depth, strange as it may seem for so small a lake—a mere pond. But the story is often told of the Pot of Gold in Wabassa's Lake."

THE MACON OUTRAGE.—It is now pretty generally known that the wife of a distinguished Divine in Macon, was a few evenings since, most horribly and brutally outraged by a negro. Returning from a neighbor's residence about twilight, the lady sought a near route home through an alley, and was seized, choked, overpowered and fendishly abused.

After anxious search she was found about 11 o'clock that night, in an insensible condition, and so seriously injured by the black devil, that she is not expected to recover.

After restoration, she described the negro and stated that she had bit him upon the arm. A negro—a big black infernal fiend, the carriage driver of Capt. Keston, was immediately arrested, and the mark upon his arm once identified him as the perpetrator, and he was lodged in jail.

These are the main facts, as we learn them from private sources. A private letter dated 29th, states that the lady was in a very critical condition, and but little hope was entertained for her recovery. Great excitement prevailed in the city—an additional police force of forty men had been detailed to guard the jail, and the negroes had applied to Gen. Terry for troops to protect the criminal against the vengeance of the community.

This is one of the cases in which retribution should follow swift upon the heels of the crime, and even yet though a wall of bayonets should surround the inhuman brute, it is the duty of the citizens of Macon to make an example. Our wives and daughters and mothers must be protected against such horrible brutality, and neither laws nor bayonets should deter fathers, husbands and brothers from the performance of that sacred duty. The whole community should rise up and demand the prisoner, and resistance to such demand should be answered with the sternest manhood. Bullock offers a premium for just such outrages, in pardoning every fiend that commits them; and if Terry masters his force to protect them, both he and Bullock should be made to feel the power of men who hold their lives a ready sacrifice in defence of their women and children.—Albany News.

JACKSONVILLE, ALA.,
Saturday, Feb. 12, 1870.TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.
For one year in advance, $3.00
For six months, " 1.75TERMS OF ADVERTISING.
One square of 10 lines or less, first insertion, 25 cents; subsequent insertions, 15 cents. Over one square counted as two, &c.
Obituaries charged at advertising rates.

In passing through the Store of Messrs. Woodward on yesterday, our attention was attracted to the finest and most beautiful lot of pocket cutlery we have ever seen in this place, and we may safely add the cheapest according to quality. If you wish to purchase a fine and beautiful pocket knife, call and examine their stock. While we were in the store a gentleman called in, although he had purchased a knife the day before. He was so well pleased with the quality and price, that he bought another.

By the way we may mention here that the business and style of the firm has been changed to that of "J. L. Woodward & Sons." It will hereafter be conducted by J. L. Woodward, Jr. and John H. Woodward. These young gentlemen, having been trained by so careful, experienced and accurate a merchant as the senior partner of the old firm, cannot fail to do a successful and prosperous business, alike advantageous to themselves and patrons. They are almost daily in the receipt of fresh Goods, and are preparing to start for the largest and most varied stock of Spring and Summer Goods every brought to this market.

MILINERY GOODS.—We invite the special attention of dealers in Millinery Goods, Bonnets, Trimmings, Ribbons, Velvets, &c. to the advertisement of Messrs. Armstrong, Cator and Co. of Baltimore, Md. This experienced, correct and competent business firm has on hand the largest, finest and most varied stock of this description of Goods, which can be found perhaps in any city in the United States, and at the very cheapest rates. We say not this at random, but know that they have had a number of patrons in this section for several years past, to whom they have given the most unqualified satisfaction. Send your orders and see if every word is not confirmed. Merchants going North for Spring Goods, ought by all means to take this house in their route.

Delinquent tax payers would do well to give attention to notice of tax sales in this paper. It may not be generally known that while the new Revenue Law allows two years for redemption, it requires the person redeeming to pay double the amount of the sale and costs, together with ten per cent. addition.

DISTRESSING.—We learn that Mrs. Jones, mother-in-law of Mr. J. J. Adershol, formerly of this place, but now living on Cane Creek some 18 miles south-west, wandered from the house some two weeks ago, and has not been heard of since. Mrs. Jones was very old and infirm of body and mind, so much so as to render it doubtful, even if she reached any house, whether she could give any intelligent account of whence she came or whether she was going. A mill pond in the vicinity was drained a short time after she left, and the most diligent search made for days in the neighborhood, but without gaining the slightest trace of her. Should any person be able to give any information of her, they would there by greatly relieve her deeply distressed children and friends.

The following articles, of the list of Dr. John Bull's valuable and excellent remedies, may now be obtained on application at either of the Drug Stores in Jacksonville:

Dr. John Bull's Sarsaparilla,
" " " King of Pain,
" " " Worm Destroyer,
" " " Smith's Tonic Syrup,

The Purpose of the Ecumenical Council.

The Rome (Jan. 6) correspondent of the New York Tribune, has this about the great Catholic council: The day has come and gone, and no one is wiser for the Public Sessions. Great was the firing of cannon, the ringing of bells, the display of armed men, the glitter of gay uniforms, the throng of clowns and horses, the splendor of ecclesiastical pomp, the show of picture-que, though often fantastic, costumes of different nationalities, the swarm of spectators that hung around the statue of St. Peter, as the doors of the Council Hall were thrown open, and the venerable fathers took their seats in the solemn assembly. It was an imposing and a beautiful spectacle. The picturesque features of the scene blunted the perception of its real significance. After the disclosures of the month, no one can doubt that the purpose of the Council is to wage war upon the progress of thought, and to obstruct the liberties of mankind. It is a protest against the spirit of the age, and a summons for return to medieval darkness. The conclusions of modern science are the special objects of its dread and untimely. The tendency of the great thinkers of the day to relieve the pursuit of knowledge from the assumptions of theology is denounced with the vehemence men of wild terror. Popular suffrage as the basis of civil government is scorned as the invention of the devil. No love of his race, no belief in freedom and humanity, can wish well to the cause of the dominant party in the Council. It is very well ascertained that, speaking in round numbers, out of the 700 members, at least 500 are in favor of the Papal party. The minority of 200 is respected for its weight of character, its devotion to the Church, and its practical common sense. The persons of whom it is composed command too extensive an influence, present too formidable an opposition, to permit their counsel to pass unheeded, and it is believed by many that they still have it in their power to modify essentially the extreme measures that are insisted on by the Pope.

The Remedy for Florida.
The ruinous nature of the Legislation at Tallahassee, the passage of financial and railroad bills involving the assumption of millions of State debt, the shameless conduct of the members of the Legislature, and the fact that their votes are bought and sold as so much merchandise, these grievances and many more that we do not now stop to mention, call loudly for a remedy. Let a State Convention be called to enter its protest in the name of the people of the State of Florida against the plundering schemes of the radical rulers, & to inform all parties that the people will repudiate all debts incurred for fraudulent purposes. There is no better time than the present to call this convention, and there is no other resource. The patch work compromises of politicians will effect nothing beyond the furtherance of the aims of some scheming plotter who hopes in this way to further his own personal interest. The Legislators, and Governor of Florida, are in the main, a worthless set of adventurers and their present acts are the ruin of the State of Florida, than the action king of the Danubius; or an assemblage of apes and ring-tailed monkeys. —Pensacola Commercial.

An Expensive Sin Dial.
To give a hint of the corruption and extravagance which is now going on in our governmental affairs, we give the following extract from a recent letter of Mack, to the Enquirer:

No later than last evening I was conversing with a gentleman who was for years Gen. M. McChesney's Adjutant General, and reputed the best officer of the kind in the service. He has had command of troops on the frontier of Texas. He told me of a sin dial which had been constructed in one of the frontier forts—a very plain article on a granite pedestal—the actual value of which he estimated at several dollars. What do you think the Government has paid for it? He assured me that he had gone to the trouble to examine the vouchers in the Departments, and said he "as I am a living man, that sin dial has cost the Government forty thousand dollars." I asked him how it was done—where the cheat was? "I don't know," said he: "I only know that every quartermaster and commissary who has anything to do with the fort owns a fine pair of horses, with silver-mounted, monogram harness, and splendid carriages and big stone front houses." He told me of another fort, the keeping of which cost the Government two millions a year, which he would undertake to maintain for two thousand; and enumerated a variety of other abuses of like kind.

KILLING INDIANS.—Concerning Col. Baker's expedition against the Indians in Montana, which the telegraph reported as a "complete success," the Philadelphia Press says:
A report comes from Helena, Montana, of a wholesale slaughter of Indians by a detachment of troops under Colonel Baker, which rivals in atrocity the famous Chivington massacre. Thirty lodges of men and women and children were surprised and mercilessly butchered, only six or eight escaping. It is a sad commentary on our civilization, and a reproach to Christianity, that such fiendishness should be practiced under the sanction of authority, and with the approval of public sentiment in at least a large portion of the Union.

The Philadelphia Age says: "Over one million of skilled workmen are entirely out of employment in the United States, with constantly decreasing demand for laborers. What is to be done? It will not do to build up an army of hungry, discontented men in the land. There is danger in that cloud. The path of safety lies in the defeat of a party, the legislation of which has but one effect—to make the rich man more wealthy and the poor man more dependent upon the former class."

FIRST RATE NOTICE OF THE AGENCY.
The Boston Post evidently has a very clear perception of how Legislatures are called, are manufactured down South. Referring to the manner in which the Atlanta Agency was set agoing, it says: "The business of turning out Democrats and filling up with Radicals goes on merrily in the Georgia Legislature, and the standard of loyalty in that body will soon become superfluous. The charges against the Democratic members, whose seats were wanted for Radicals, were that, having held office under some general law of the State, they had since given aid and comfort to the rebellion. About half of the Democratic members not being carpet-baggers, but generally landed proprietors, had, at some time during their lives, under the old regime, held the high office of Road Commissioner. The duties of this office were very important. He was obliged to see that the roads in his jurisdiction were kept free from mud holes, that fallen trees were removed and that gates were filled with brush and stones. Those who owned land for long distances on each side of the public road would generally secure the office of Road Commissioner in their district, since the whole burden of the business would come upon them in any case. But now the Agency General has decided that none of these can without perjury take the oath required, if they have ever attended a Confederate barbecue or harbored a rebel soldier. The rulings of the Attorney General and the Military Board have put a premium upon carpet-bagging, which is precisely what is desired, it operates to oust Democrats from their seats and fill up the Radical majority with men who were never elected."

The Rural Carolinian for February.
In a few short months THE RURAL CAROLINIAN has, by its attractive appearance and varied contents of never failing merit, become a standing Agricultural Magazine, and is this day anxiously looked for and attentively perused by its thousands of readers as if it had been published for a century. Its devotion to the practical and scientific development of Southern agriculture give it a peculiar character and value, not only to the people of the South, whom it more immediately affects, but also to Northerners and Europeans, to whom the South is a sort of China or Japan, but recently opened to their investigation. The number now before us is splendid illustration of what brains and enterprise can do when aided by the sympathy and interest of our entire people. With sixty eight pages of reading matter (four more than the usual number) it has not an article in it that would not please the most practical farmer, and yet there is much to entertain and instruct the general reader. The illustrations are useful as well as ornamental, and the likeness of DeLesseps is worthy of being preserved as a life-like representation of a great man, the moving spirit of a wonderful achievement. The typographical execution is superb, and the design of the cover is one of our regenerated South may well feel proud.

DOTY'S WASHING MACHINE.

LATESTLY IMPROVED—AND THE NEW

Universal Clothes Wringer

Improved with ROWELL'S PATENT DOBSON COOK-WRINGER, and the PARKER STAP, are now unquestionably far superior to any apparatus for washing clothes ever invented, and will save their cost twice a year, by saving labor and clothes.

Southern people who have used them testify as follows:
"They save three-fourths of the labor and cost, and pay for themselves both in money and contentment. Let every married lady learn to use them, and every married one keep them in her house.—New Orleans Picayune."

"An excellent Washing Machine. We have tried it. The Clothes Wringer is very superior. A good hand will wash a large number of pieces in a few hours."—Raleigh (N. C.) Express and Messenger.

"We do not part with it for anything and are compelled to do without it."—Morgantown (W. Va.) Post.

"We have one, and speak from observation. It works admirably. In one year it will pay for itself."—Glenwood (Tenn.) Democrat.

"We have one of Doty's Clothes Washers, and our household are in ecstasies over it. They are great economizers of time and labor."—Morgantown (W. Va.) Post.

"Far superior to any apparatus for washing clothes ever invented, and an indispensable institution in every family."—Marblehead (Mass.) Herald.

"No one, after fairly testing their capacities, will be willing to do without them."—Paydville (Tenn.) Observer.

"We have one of these excellent Machines in use, and we cheerfully commend it for all that is claimed for it."—Rutherfordton (N. C.) Indicator.

"A child ten years old can do the washing just as well as a man. Every good husband should secure one for his family."—Morgantown (W. Va.) Constitution.

"After over two years' experience with a Doty, we are assured that it is the greatest help and economizer of time, labor and money we have yet had introduced into our household."—Williamson Smith, New Orleans.

PRICES—A Fair Offer.
If the Merchants in your place will not furnish, or send for the Machines, send the retail price, Washer $15, Extra Winger $18, and we will forward either or both machines, free of freight, to places where no one is selling; and so sure are we they will be liked, that we agree to refund the money if any one wishes to return the machine free of freight, after a month's trial, according to directions.

JACKSONVILLE, ALA.
February 12, 1870.

Mr. Pymon. In City's communication to the Jacksonville Male Academy, a gentleman of the Academy, giving a full and complete washing, and appealing to every one who wishes well for the town, &c., to support and sustain this institution. To one ignorant of the fact that this institution had any such man at its head, or heels, the question naturally arose. Who is at this head? Hence this writer is seeking very anxiously, and for Citizen what his head of "Daddy Brook Fair." Paddy O'Rourke, could not induce any of the bystanders, to do for him.

This question brought from your inconsistent correspondent a reply in your issue of 5th inst. Not however an answer to the question. Whether he gave the name of "Daddy Brook Fair" to show that "that once honored institution has passed, with all the rights, privileges and appurtenances thereto belonging, to the Jacksonville Male Academy, and that it is a subject for the intelligent 'man and brother'."

When did this happen? Before, or since the 2nd day of January 1870, for, (as this writer is informed and believes), how will his two "Daddy Brooks" be? Or is the speeder's Bureau, this "Daddy Brook Fair" institution, and "Daddy Brook Fair" is a subject for the intelligent "man and brother."

Respectfully Yours,

For the Republican.

"Gleaner the funniest whelp of sin. In whom this City's letters are written." To "another Citizen's" who figures in your paper of the 5th inst. Ignorance would say he is not, and has not been. "A Trustee of the Jacksonville Male Academy." Is not and has never been in any manner "One of its Trustees." And the "insinuations" of your weak brother "Another Citizen" are alike unjust and untrue.

"Let the people of Jacksonville look westward from their village," (and around the public square) "and behold, if they can without a blush of shame and indignation, the vile aggregation, not of black and mortar) but of slum, squalor, and envy as it stalks around in the person of 'Another Citizen' with a cursing chuckling and deplorable smile playing upon his face, at the full he hoped to have wrought by his attack upon 'Poor Ignorance,' and for what? The question was asked for a name; that, 'fit him better than any he could have called out of the whole vocabulary of the language.'"

Until, your Correspondent "Another Citizen," purges himself of this foul sin, and is as clean as a sheet, communication with

IGNORANCE.

FROM GEORGIA. "Mac" Feb. 12. Great indignation is manifested by the people of the State of Georgia, against the "Intelligencer," a pretended Democratic paper, published at the residence of the Bullock faction. The Intelligencer is in the pay of Bullock. The people are going to give the benefit of a fair reconstruction of the act to promote reconstruction and save them from plunder and ruin; the people of Georgia to carry out their own act in good faith.

FROM THE CAPITAL. "Mac" Feb. 12. The Senate of Alabama and Chattanooga R. R. bill passed the House to-day with the amendment that two millions of dollars be loaned to the State of Georgia, as was provided in the original Senate bill. The Senate will undoubtedly concur in the House amendment.

FROM PARIS. "Mac" Feb. 12. Gen. Heine departed for Panama to conduct the French ship canal expedition.

Philadelphia, Henry Rochfort's Journal, appears this morning with a sensational article over the signature of Rochfort himself, and states that the notice ordering him to consider himself a prisoner, in obedience to the sentence of the court, (Mac declares boldly he will not surrender himself, and if the ministers want him they must come and take him; and furthermore they must come prepared to use force.

The new postal arrangement with the United States applies only to prepared matter. "Mac" Feb. 12. Leroy Cotton was to-day convicted of the murder of Major Lachnan here last April. He was sentenced to be hung on the 8th of April next.

The Legislature convened at Austin to-day. Much interest is manifested at the result of the Senate election. Hamilton and Reynolds are believed to be the strongest candidates.

MOBILE, Feb. 8. The Grand Lodge I. O. O. F., of Alabama, met last evening, with a full attendance, especially from abroad. It will be in session two weeks, and will be a very interesting and imposing session. A ball will be given at the Battle House, to-morrow night, by the Odd Fellows.

MONTGOMERY, Feb. 8. The Alabama and Chattanooga Railroad bill has fully passed both houses by a large majority, lending the credit of the State to the amount of two millions.

A dispatch from President Stanton, at Boston, thanks the Legislature, says the road shall soon be built, and make great promises that Alabama shall be the beneficiary.

TRUSTEES, Feb. 8. The Legislature has adopted a resolution requesting the Congressional delegation to urge the recognition of Cuba.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 8. Mrs. Amelia Hobbs has been elected Justice of the Peace of Jersey county Illinois.

LONDON, Feb. 8. The Queen opened Parliament in a highly conservative speech.

PARIS, Feb. 8. The troubles at Belleville lasted all night, and have extended northward to La Villette. The troops have not yet resorted to firearms. The police are active and many arrests have been made.

Beyond the excitement, naturally incident to such an occasion the rest of the city is tranquil. The government still maintains precautionary measure to prevent outbreaks elsewhere.

HOARY ROCHFORD, editor of the "Intelligencer," was arrested in the eastern part of the city at an early hour this evening. His friends and patrons are assembling in great crowds in that quarter, and serious trouble is expected.

LETTERS.—The troubles at Belleville are becoming serious. The streets are filled with shouting people, and the barricades have commenced. A detachment of Imperial troops arrived in the vicinity at eleven o'clock.

The police attempted to carry barricades Rue Du Faubourg and Du Temple, but were repulsed, one killed and one wounded. Barricades elsewhere have been erected but not defended. The troops are out in force, but have not used arms up to this time.—All quiet.

Many arrests have been made, mostly boys under the influence of liquor.

PARIS, Feb. 9.—Disorders were resumed at midnight in the vicinity of the former disturbances. Several additional barricades were erected in the narrow streets. The troops still reserve fire. The police made several charges, killing some of the leaders. Gustave Flourens is still at large. At 3 o'clock P. M., the police and military had the mob under their control, and the city is tranquil.

THE SITUATION. The thing is plain. Bullock and the destructionists have consummated their direful plotting; against the peace of our good old State. We are set back two years. The present Legislature will serve until the next regular election, two years hence, provided for in the State Constitution, and Bullock will be Governor for the next four years—unless elected to the United States Senate on the fifteenth instant. Congress will sustain the present status of things. It would be hoping against hope and folly to argue otherwise. The Radicals have a better hold upon Georgia now than they could possibly hope for under any new order of things; and what they want is power, power, power. Some little show of indignation and protest will perhaps be made in Congress by Republicans conservatively inclined; but they will be soon whipped into line, or treated with the usual contempt, and so poor old Georgia will be left to the mercy of Bullock and a Radical Legislature. Oh! Lord send a "thunder-bolt" from Commercial.

MURDER MOST FOUL.

On the 11th of October, 1869, the body of a woman was found floating in the river, near the foot of the bridge. The body was found by a man named John, who was walking across the bridge. He saw the body floating in the river, and he went down to see what it was. He found it was a woman, and he took her up to the shore. He then went to the police and told them what he had found. The police went to the scene and found the body. They then took it to the morgue. The body was found to be that of a woman named Mary. She was found to have been killed by a man named John. The man was then arrested and charged with the murder. The case was then brought to court. The judge then sentenced the man to hang. The man was then hanged. The case was then closed.

When asked if he had anything to say in his defense, the man said: "I have nothing to say."

His counsel appealed, but in vain—

He was executed on the 11th of November, 1869.

TO CONSUMPTIVES.

THE Advertiser, having been restored to health in a few weeks, by a very simple remedy, after having suffered several years with a severe lung affection, and that dread disease, Consumption, is anxious to make known to his fellow-sufferers the means of cure.

To all who desire it, he will send a copy of the prescription used (free of charge), with the directions for preparing and using the same, which they will find a sure cure for Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, etc. The object of the advertisement in sending the Prescription is to benefit the afflicted, and spread information which he believes to be invaluable; and he hopes every sufferer will try his remedy, as it will cost them nothing, and may prove a blessing.

Parties wishing the prescription, will please address Rev. EDWARD A. WILSON, Williamsburg, Kings county, New York.

ONE PENNY.

"One penny for Maggie," a faint voice sobbed. And the echoes along replied.

While the jostling crowd with a look of scorn, Passed by on the other side. "One penny for Maggie," and on her cheek There glistened a frozen tear.

For the night was dark and the wind blew cold, And no early friend was near.

"One penny for Maggie," she robbed, And the echoes along replied.

While the church's merry peal rang out, And the crowd went hurrying past; For one from a heathen land had come To ask for Christ and aid, And the death-chill crept o'er the sobbing form.

While for distant souls they prayed, "One penny for Maggie," again she sobbed.

And the rough winds laughed aloud, For while whirling around the church's walls, They had peeped at the listening crowd, And their eyes were moist at the mournful tale.

The devoted man had told, And jeweled arms at his call were lured, While Maggie perished with cold.

"One penny for Maggie," she gasped, and died.

Where the church's shadows cast, Then a closing prayer from the desk was heard.

And the crowd went hurrying past, Of the "Bloody Car of Death" they spoke While they passed poor Maggie by; And hushed, as they thought of the Ganges tide, A tear from each moistened eye.

A Son-in-law Kills his Father-in-law for his Property.

IN THE TIMES of Wednesday we mentioned that a Methodist preacher, the Rev. Mr. Knight, had been shot at several times and finally compelled to leave Morgan county to save his life. In the Nashville Banner, of the 8th, we find the following intelligence of the death of Mr. Knight, and the circumstances connected with his killing.—Nashville Times.

T. J. Knight, the old gentleman who was killed with bullets near Decatur, Ala., and brought to Nashville, a few days ago, died of his wounds at St. Vincent Hospital, Sunday morning.

Coroner P. W. Brien held an inquest over his remains, and the jury returned a verdict that he "came to his death from gun shot wounds from the hands of Alexander Tarver and Polk Mackner."

Tarver's first wife was Knight's daughter. By virtue of his relationship he was named to live in Knight's dwelling. When Tarver married his second wife, he claimed and enforced his "right" to a continued residence under Knight's roof. Tarver was an insolent, do-nothing sort of fellow, and Knight had supported him two years without compensation.

After working for a week or so, he grew tired of his employment, and swore that he would kill Knight and his son and daughter, and thus possess himself of Knight's property.

In order to carry out his sanguinary designs he colored together, one night two weeks ago, a band of ruffians twenty in number, went to Knight's house, forced an entrance, and with muskets rattled Knight's bed and body with bullets. "Away! Knight is dead!" was the shout, but had inflicted only a few slight wounds. Subsequently, finding that they had failed in their bloody purpose, the assassins returned, poured another volley into Knight, and again left him for dead. The assassin who lay on the bed doctored saved him. As it was, one of his arms was literally torn to pieces. To prevent further attempts upon his life he was brought to Nashville, but only to die in the midst of strangers. The murdered man was sixty-five years of age.

THE GOVERNOR'S MESSAGE.—The brief Message to the Legislature in which the Governor declines to take steps to "organize" the militia at this time as not being either proper or necessary in the present peaceful condition of the States is correct both in its law and in its patriotism. This is certainly no time to be entangling any additional expense upon our tax-ridden people, and the idea of ever treating the question of militia organization as a partisan political one, is simply and decidedly mischievous in effect, and villainous in spirit. Gov. Smith deserves the thanks of all good citizens for the firmness and discretion combined which he has uniformly observed in connection with this important subject.—(Mont. Mail.)

RAPE AND ITS CONSEQUENCES.—We learn from the Dalton Citizen that a negro boy named Albert Wilkie, who committed a rape on the person of a white girl near Dalton on Thursday last, and afterwards arrested and committed to jail, was taken there on Monday night last by a body of disguised men and hung to a tree in the Presbyterian Church yard. Judge Lynch is to be feared, but in this and similar instances, it is the only law for the inhuman wretch that would violate the chastity of women. Let vengeance be swift and sure. Rome Daily.

Correspondence Baltimore Gazette.] Aggressive Measures.—The Ultra Radical Leaders Shorn of their Strength.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4, 1870.

I have taken some pains to understand the status of members of the Senate and House upon the question of further aggressive measures by the Radical leaders, and am able to state that the majority in the House of Representatives and a minority of considerable and increasing strength in the Senate are disposed, at least, to pause, before taking another step in the direction of civil revolution.

The negro has been set at liberty. He has been accepted the ballot (when two-thirds of the States have been disfranchised). He has been put in the position of a testifier in courts in cases civil and criminal, whites alone were concerned; the children of his race have been provided, at the public expense, with ample means of education, and his equality enforced by law in all public conveniences, theaters, houses of entertainment and public edifices; and, finally, he has been lifted to the highest positions in the Government—executive and legislative. Correspondingly the whites have been degraded.

It would be difficult, indeed, for the dominant party to go further on in the direction of elevating the negro or depressing the white race. Yet it is felt by many astute radical leaders that to pause for an instant in this respect, would be death to their organization. This argument (unquestionably sound) has thus far dragged along many unwilling votes, which served to swell their congressional majorities. But I am now assured, by many in whom I have the utmost confidence, that even the disengagement of the "republican" party will not induce an effective majority in Congress (even as at present organized) to follow Sumner and Butler as men further in their road to inextinguishable ruin.

The negro, whoever may say to the contrary, has all along been the sheet anchor of the radical party. Upon no other question could it have been made a unit under the lash of New England. The radicalism of the Northern mind upon this one point is the most marvellous phenomenon the world ever witnessed. At this moment many Northern voters (who know nothing at all of the question) would not hesitate to go the length of a declaration that every other question has been subservient to this one. Even hatred of secessionism and vengeance against secessionists owe much, if not all, of their acrimonious malignity to the perfect madness possessing the popular imagination, and upon this subject, excited, as it has been, by the loss of a purchased and unscrupulous press. The end of the tether has at last been reached. "Othello's occupation's gone."

No one can exaggerate the importance of the reaction that has taken place in the past few days. Freed from the tedium which weighed so heavily upon members, and from causes dication, its acknowledged effect, the great questions of the day are now being discussed, and voted upon, with respect alone to the interests of the country at large. If Western and Southern members shall, therefore, now be found voting for the Eastern money changers, bondholders and manufacturers, the excuse of party shackles imposed in deference to the eternal and infernal negro question will not avail them. They must stand out in bold relief as purchased cattle at so much a head.

It must be acknowledged that the evident reaction referred to has been purchased at a heavy and degrading price. But it seems negrophilism, like the morbus malaricus fever, must needs run its course. It has now been diminished. The day is not far distant when the whole country will look back with wonderment at its infatuation, and hasten quickly and effectively to retrace its steps. In the meantime we must have patience, and do the best we can under gloomy prospects.

You will see that Democrats and conservatives in Congress are becoming more lively and independent than when (a short time ago) they were under the daily apprehension of expulsion, or worse. Their day-to-day life has been untrammelled. Let them hereafter hold up their heads manfully. The threats of Morton and Sumner, and Butler and Hoar have become vapor ideal. Such men are no longer the Robespierres, the Dantons and Marates of America. They are forever, from this moment, shorn of their strength for further mischief.

The Secretary of War, by a vote of the House, has been ordered to issue rations to the poor of Washington. In plain words he has been directed, to feed idle, worthless negroes, brought into Washington for the purpose of voting the Radical ticket, and kept there in order that that party may hold the reins of authority. All these negroes are badly needed in Virginia by the farmers. Fair wages and constant employment would be given them. But they are retained in demagogical capital by the Radicals, and fed by the funds of the tolling white men of the country. This is the latest exhibition of Radical care for white men. The negroes of Washington are to be maintained in idleness, while the country is taxed to foot their bills.—Pitts. Age.

GOLD EXCITEMENT.—A telegram from Terre Haute, Indiana, says most intense excitement prevails in Clarke county, Illinois, in consequence of the discovery of gold on Big Creek, about twenty miles from Terre Haute. A lately returned California, a miner of eighteen years experience, has been prospecting, it is said, for some days in the ravines along the creek, and in every haul of earth he has found gold in paying quantities. The people of that section are wild with the gold mania, and are leaving all their business to search for the precious metal.

That was a profound philosopher who compared advertising to a growing crop. He said: "The farmer plants his seed, and while he is sleeping the corn is growing. So with advertising. While you are sleeping or eating, your advertisement is being read by thousands of persons who never saw you or heard of your business, nor ever would, had it not been for your advertising."

John D. Barclay, a clerk in the Treasury Department at Washington, died last month. He had been in the Department about thirty-five years, having been appointed during Jefferson's administration in 1804. He was the oldest clerk in Washington. He never had a day's leave of absence, and at the time of his death was entitled, according to the ordinary practice, to over five years leave.

THE RETURN.—The following is the vote in the Senate on the passage of the memorial for the relief of political disabilities.—Barr, Bromberg, Farden, Foster, Glass, Johnston, Jones, King, Leander, McAfee, Marley, Miller, Pennington, Royal, (all.) Sanford, Wyman, Verly.—17.

NAYS.—Cham, Hinds, Lutz McIntosh, Morton, Oliver, Richards, Sevier, Sibley.—9.

Negro Suffrage.

The memorial against negro suffrage, presented by Mr. Sainsbury in the Senate, quotes the following interesting opinion of eminent statesmen of all parties, Abraham Lincoln included, on the question of negro suffrage: Adams said:

I have never read reasoning more absurd, sophistry more gross, than the subtle labors of Helvetius and Rosseau to demonstrate the natural equality of mankind.

Thomas Jefferson said:

Nothing is more certainly written in the book of fate than that these people (the negroes) are to be free, nor is it less certain that the two races equally free cannot live under the same government.

Daniel Webster said:

If any gentleman from the South shall propose a scheme to be carried out by this government upon a large scale for the transportation of the colored people to any colony, or any place in the world, I should be quite disposed to incur almost any degree of expense to accomplish that object.

Henry Clay said:

Of the utility of a total separation of the two incongruous races of our population, supposing it to be practicable, none have ever doubted; the mode of accomplishing that desirable object has alone divided public opinion.

Stephen A. Douglas said:

I believe this government was made by white men for the benefit of white men and their prosperity forever, and I am in favor of confining citizenship to white men of European birth and descent, instead of conferring it upon negro, Indians and other inferior races.

Abraham Lincoln said:

I am not and never have been in favor of making voters or jurors of negroes, nor of qualifying them to hold office, nor to intermarry with whites, and I will say further, in addition to this that there is a physical difference between the white and black races, which I believe, will forever forbid the two races living on terms of social and political equality.

The Providence Herald, in alluding to Greeley's slur upon the "little States and little souls" that passed the Virginia bill, very pertinently adds:

We have heretofore expressed the belief that the small States will some day have occasion to regret their injustice toward other sections of the Union, and we are certain that the South will not forget the hate and the bigotry evinced by New England in this matter of reconstruction. The privilege of equal representation in the Senate which the Constitution gives the small States—the large States will some time seek to take from them, and then New England will be even more at the mercy of the West and South than the South is now at the mercy of the Radical party. New England is laying up wrath against the day of wrath; and as she sows the wind, so must she expect to reap the whirlwind.

The next number of our paper closes the 32d volume, and the succeeding one, which will be dated March 5th, will commence the 33d volume, new series, from which time the paper will be edited and published by J. E. and L. W. Grant. It is our present purpose, if the paper and the other indispensable materials arrive in time, to commence the new volume on the enlarged size. It has never been our policy of practice to indulge in large promises, thereby creating extravagant expectations. We prefer that the disappointment, if any, should be on the side of our readers, than on the side of the publisher.

Politically, we know of nothing really new or strange. Congress, and various Southern Legislatures in session are still enacting Radical laws, which not only do not help, but rather hinder. Our own State will be several millions more in debt at the close of the present session than it was at the beginning. The passage of the Florida annexation and several Railroad bills, which is one of the ways we suppose Radical Legislatures have for remunerating the people who pay them one thousand dollars per day for their valuable services.

With the exception of one rain on Monday night last, the weather has been very favorable recently for farming purposes. We learn that the wheat crop generally looks very promising. 1870, it is believed by many will be a good crop year.

Early Blooms.—A gentleman of this place informed us that he noticed peach blossoms in his garden on the day last. If early blooming be an indication of future, it will probably stand a better chance this year. Last year however the fruit was killed, and it blossomed out later than common.

We tender our sincere thanks to those of our patrons who have recently paid up their subscription dues, and would like to advise those who are still on hand, to do so at once, as we are unable to do so on application, upon equitable terms.

Mrs. Jones, mentioned in our last paper, as having been lost, was found on Saturday last in Cape Creek about three-fourths of a mile from the house. She is supposed to have fallen in the Creek and been drowned on Friday two weeks before. Her remains were brought to this place, where other members of the family had been interred, and buried on Sunday evening last.

In the enlarged issue of the paper, we will have a local column devoted to the minor matters of Jacksonville.

THE LATEST NEWS.

The Senate, on Monday, passed the bill leaving the credit of the State to the Mobile & Montgomery Rail Road to the extent of $2,500,000.

Mark D. Brainard, Clerk of the U. S. Dist. Court, shot and killed Foster, his brother-in-law, in Montgomery a few days ago.

Brunner's Woolen Mills in Philadelphia burned on the 17th. Loss, $1,000,000.

Georgia Legislature has adjourned to next April 1st.

Mayor Price of Mobile refuses to surrender the office to Harrington. Harrington has called on Gov. Smith for troops, which are positively refused him.

W. D. Turner (black negro) is to be Chief of Police, under Harrington's regime.

The bill admitting Mississippi, passed the Senate, as it came from the House.

A song that is just now very popular in the London Music Halls has the unusual feature of furnishing in the idea. The chorus runs thus—
I saw Esau kissing Kate,
For I saw Esau, he saw me,
And she saw I saw Esau.

AN ASSASSIN KILLED.—The Marquis (Clay) Gordon, of the 27th January, assassinated Rogers, the midnight assassin, who murdered Miss Maggie McCallan on the night of the first of October last, in this place, was arrested at the residence of Andrew Watson, (colored,) last night, and in attempting to break arrest was killed by the constable and posse.

Who Sell Cambrides.—The Commercial of Washington special of the 4th, says Congressional inquiry reveals the fact that in the Fortieth Congress some six members from the Southern States sold to New Yorkers the appointment of electors to West Point, for five hundred to two thousand dollars apiece. The requirement of the law was evaded by sending the candidates to reach immediately preceding the nomination to the member's district appointment. The engineer's bureau would not notify him by mail to appear for examination, and by receiving a reply to the same the officer would be completely deceived as to the exact date of his appointment.

VIRGINIA.—The Montgomery Advertiser winds up an article on the dirty matter of admission adopted by Congress for Virginia, with these remarks:
But patience, Democrats of Alabama. It is our absolute conviction that these filthy rascals and scoundrels are fast reaching on their doom. The day will yet come, and it is not so distant as one might suppose, when those who have conspired against the liberties of the people and insulted our laws, shall be brought to the judgement their crimes deserve.

TURNLEY-WOODWARD.—Married, on Tuesday the 15th inst., at the M. E. Church, by the Rev. F. T. J. Brandon, Mr. George L. Turnley to Miss W. L. A. Woodward, both of this place.

Maiden and Matron had vied with each other in the handsome decoration of the Church for the occasion; Six of the most beautiful young ladies of Fayetteville and Jacksonville, and as many of the most gallant young gentlemen of Talladega and Jacksonville, respectively, "stood up" with the young couple during the trying ordeal; the ceremony was most fitting, beautiful and impressive; and, in fact, the whole affair went off with credit. Immediately after the marriage, the newly wedded started on their bridal tour, to be gone some weeks. Everybody joins us in the cordial wish for a most lovely honeymoon, safe return, and exceeding great happiness in the future.

Mr. J. B. Williams, County Superintendent, which is addressed to teachers and principals of schools, in these words: "You are hereby notified to apply at the Post office as soon as practicable, where you can find school books of the series adopted by the State Board of Education, and required to be used by the schools." The Board of Education does not seem to understand this matter, or at least does not explain it. It will offer a few remarks for the information of those concerned. In their action the Board only approved the action of Dr. Cloud in the following resolution, dated August 29th, 1869.

"Resolved, That we approve the action of the Board of Education in adopting the series of text books set forth in his circular of Jan. 1st, 1870."

Now, compare with this what Dr. Cloud says on Jan. 1st, 1870.

"Compare the uniformity of text books being essential to the success of the school system, and the necessity of having all the children under the authority of the State Board of Education, carefully and uniformly instructed in the leading series of school books, and approved by the State Board of Education, the public schools of this State." (Here follows a list of the publications of Dr. S. Barnes & Co.)

By comparing dates, we see that the Board only sanctioned Dr. Cloud's action after about eight months, which is irregular, even if the Board have the authority to legislate on the text books—a matter, which may well be questioned. Yet, soon after the promulgation of the order, Dr. Cloud instructs his County Superintendents not to pay out the fund to any teachers who do not use the favored series.

Is uniformity of text books in fact to Dr. Cloud, the cause of his action on an unwilling people, or may he be so contumacious that such a step compels them to use books which they do not want? Men of better judgment would have hesitated ere taking so bold a step, but his foot in the door is firmly planted.

Dr. Cloud has attempted to force on the people a series of books which, except Davis's Arithmetic, have never been known or reported by the best teachers of the State, and if we must have a uniform series, let it be a good one or at least one selected by the best teachers among whom our State Superintendent has no place.

I fear I am trespassing on your patience, but if you will allow me, I have one more complaint to urge against this unimmaculate leader in his effort to enforce the "man and brother." One he explains how or why it is, that for the last two years, about the commencement of the year we hear so much of the ability of the fund to pay the whole tuition, and in a short time the amount begins to diminish until little or nothing is left. This is not because of living his own nest, but the public expense, but it does seem as if the enormous taxes which the people pay would give more than they do to the schools, and I do wish, for the sake of his own good name, (if he has any regard for it), that he would explain matters a little more satisfactorily this year when the fund is exhausted, and we have every reason to believe that it will fail.

Secret Political Societies.

The era of political disorder is ever marked by the organization and spread of secret "oath-bound clubs," which are always the foes of well regulated liberty. The Northern papers announce the formation of the Society of the "G. A. C." (Grand Army of the Constitution), organized "to support the Constitution as handed down by our forefathers," and as a foil to other secret organizations in the interests of Radicalism, known as the "Grand Army of the Republic, Loyal Leagues, etc., etc."

This is on the principle of fighting the devil with fire. These secret oath-bound political organizations of all sorts, are seen from the leading papers of European politics, and if defended at all, are so only where open discussion of political questions is impossible, and men believe that the atrocities of tyranny must be curbed by the sword, dagger and poison of the secret society. Where discussion is free, and liberty of the press is maintained, there is no excuse for them. If any necessity is pretended, it is the necessity of corruption, bribery and dishonest artifice, to frustrate the progress and effect of truth by the base arts of mere political intrigue.

ligion. They mistake their calling and the broad expansive and genial principles they pretend to advocate. Away, then, with all secret political organizations among Democrats. Away with such spawn of fanaticism, deadly intrigue and stinking political profligacy, which seek to substitute cunning and craft for reason—and bribery, fraud and underhand machinations of all sorts, for the voice of an incorruptible people, given in the broad light of day, upon a fair and open hearing.

Let the Radicals monopolize all this machinery of vice and popular demoralization. It belongs to them. It becomes them. It is a fit illustration of their party—it tendencies, objects, effects and influences upon the American people, and the free Republican Government transmitted to us by an heroic and noble ancestry. But leave the vermin of the garrets and the worms and snails of the dungeons to an appropriate sequestration. Let Democrats stand up for their high principles in the open light of day. MONTGOMERY, Feb. 11.—The general railroad law extending the time in which roads can get the State indemnity of $10,000 per mile was discussed in the Senate until adjournment.

In the House, a resolution to adjourn on the 25th was adopted.

There is much anxiety felt as to whether the present State will draw so as to allow one-half the Senators to be elected this fall.

A special session of the United States District Court will be convened on the 14th inst., Judge Bristed presiding. As there seems to be a probability that the impeachment of Judge Bristed is about dispirited, there is much satisfaction felt here that the regular session of the Court will now be held without interruption.

MAINE, Feb. 11.—The Maggie Mays, of Orleans, for Pittsburg, for Pittsburg, exploded near Helena, Capt. Martin the second Engineer and eight deckers were killed. The steamer Commercial passing received the balance of the crew and passengers.

RICHMOND, Feb. 11.—George Rice of Richmond, has been elected State Treasurer, receiving 119 out of 147 votes cast. Dr. Charles R. Bricken, a well known physician, theatrical lessee, one dramatic author of some note, was killed to-day the discharge of a pistol in his hands. He was the author of "Cabin and Parlor," a play for a long time performed in Southern theatres as an offset to Uncle Tom's Cabin.

FROM THE CAPITAL.

MONTGOMERY, Feb. 15.—Some days ago the Governor approved the bill reorganizing the Mobile city government, and appointed the Mayor and Aldermen. Owing to some tampering with the original bill, a select committee was appointed by the Senate to investigate the alleged forgery and interpolation, and to-day they reported that the bill engrossed "A bill to be entitled an act to reorganize the municipal government of Mobile and to provide for the election of the officers thereof" has been fraudulently altered.

The alterations consist in the addition of the following words to section one: "Provided, this shall not apply to the City Engineer," and in the engross in section 11 of the words "tax assessor."

The testimony shows that the words "provided this shall not apply to the City Tax Assessor and City Engineer" in section one of the engrossed bill; and the engross of the words "tax assessor," in section 11 of the same, are not the result of the action of either branch of the General Assembly, but are the result of fraudulent alterations made after the third reading of the bill in the House of Representatives; and this testimony further shows that, one at least of the alterations was known in the House of Representatives to one or more officers thereof, before the bill was returned to the Senate for concurrence in the amendments made by the House.

It is now understood that as the bill approved by the Governor never passed the legislature, a new deal will have to be made.

FROM MOBILE.

MOBILE, Feb. 15.—Harrington, the new Mayor, having been sworn by Judge Elliott, proceeded to administer the oath to the Aldermen and Council men. Further organization was prevented by the reception of a special to the Register which was handed to Harrington, in substance as follows:

"The select committee to whom the Municipal Bill of Mobile was referred reported, that in consequence of surreptitious interlining of the original Municipal Bill, whereby the City Engineer and Collector were to be retained, the governor was approved a bill which never passed. Consequently the original Bill is violated, and the committee will recommend an election by the people in thirty days. All parties agree that the Bill as it now stands is not a law."

POETRY.

"It is the gift of poetry to hallow every place in which it moves; to breathe round nature an odor more exquisite than the perfume of the rose and to shed over it a tint more magical than the blush of morning."

THE DIM OLD FOREST.

Among the beautiful pictures
That hang on memory's wall,
Is one of a dim old forest
That seemeth the best of all.
Not for its garbed oaks of olden,
Dark with the mistletoe;
Nor for the violets golden
That sprinkle the vale below;
Nor for the milk white lilies
That lean from the fragrant hedge,
Competing all day with the snubnoses,
And stealing their golden edge;
Not for the vines on the upland
Where the bright red berries rose,
Nor the pinks, nor the pale, sweet cowslip,
It seemeth to me the best,

I once had a little brother
With eyes that shone deep and deep,
In the lap of that dim old forest
He fell in peace a sleep.
Light as the down of a thistle,
Free as the winds that blow,
We loved there 'mid beautiful Summers,
The Sunbeams of long ago.
But his feet on the hills grew weary,
And one of the Autumn eves,
I made for my little brother
A bed of yellow leaves.

Sweetly his pale arms folded
My neck in a sweet embrace,
As the light of that mortal beauty
Slept, covered his face.
And when the arrows of sunset
Lodged in the tree-tops bright,
He fell in his saint-like beauty,
Asleep by the gates of light.
Therefore, of all the pictures
That hang on memory's wall,
That one of the dim old forest
Seemeth the best of all.

Romantic Story of a Piece of Human Hair.

A magnificent piece of human hair—the largest, finest and most valuable in America—is now hanging in the window of Thompson & Co., in Canal street near Broadway. It is of a dark brown hue, soft as silk, weighs seven ounces, and is sixty-four inches in length—five feet four inches. On a medium-sized woman, this would sweep the floor. The longest piece of hair on record exhibited at the London Exposition in 1851, belonged to Leon Polley, of Paris, and was 72 inches in length. The story of this one that measured 64 inches is rather romantic. It came from the head of a Swabian peasant girl, who had two suitors for her hand, one a poor farm hand, who earned six kreutzers a day and the other a rich miller. This miller owned the cottage in which the Swabian girl and her widowed mother lived, and being as selfish and unscrupulous as he was wealthy, threatened to drive his tenants out of their home unless his suit was successful, although they had already paid part of the price demanded for the cottage, and were saving and working to pay the remainder. In this emergency a traveling hair merchant appeared in the village, and sooner than marry the wealthy miller, or on the other hand, have her aged mother driven from home and home, determined to sacrifice her beautiful hair. It was taken to the Leipzig annual fair; sold there for $175 to an American dealer, and from his hands found its way to its present owners. It was valued at from $250 to $300.

A Railroad Haunted.

The Boston papers publish the following strange but well authenticated story:
"The engineer of the freight train on the Boston and Lowell railroad, which leaves Boston about three o'clock in the morning, has on several occasions discovered a red light swinging at a furious rate at the Woburn station, where the train stops for water. The light would sometimes be in front and sometimes in the rear of the train. When the engineer would stop his train and send some one to learn why the signal to stop was made, the messenger would be greatly surprised to see the light vanish. Investigation has proved that no person was there with a lantern and the brakeman and conductor or engineer also in having beheld the phenomenon, which, so far as known is without visible cause. Some laborers living on the line of the above station state a few mornings since they were coming down the road in a hand car, when they suddenly heard the approach of an engine and train and knowing that no train was due in that hour, they became greatly frightened, and jumping out of the car, threw it off the track to await the train which they thought was coming at a rapid pace upon them, but which it is needless to say, did not come. The superstitious regard the affair as a forewarning of some disaster, while the spiritualists have the ready theory that it is the spirit of a man who was killed there about two years since."

Great Remedies.

DR. JOHN BULL,
MANUFACTURER AND VENDOR OF THE Celebrated
Smith's Tonic Syrup!

For this cure of
AGUE AND FEVER,
OR CHILLS AND FEVER.

THE proprietor of this celebrated medicine justly claims for it a superiority over all remedies ever offered to the public for the cure of Ague and Fever, Chills and Fever, whether of short or long standing. He refers to the entire Western and South Western country to bear him testimony to the truth of the assertion that in no case whatever will it fail to cure. If the directions are strictly followed and carried out. In a great many cases a single dose has been sufficient for cure, and whole families have been cured by a single bottle, with a perfect restoration of the general health. It is however prudent, and in every case, to use more than one dose. It is continued in the system until the patient is cured. In difficult and long-standing cases. Usually, this medicine will not require any aid to keep the bowels in good order, but the patient, however, require a cathartic medicine, after having taken three or four doses of the Tonic, a single dose of Bull's Vegetable Family Pills will be sufficient.

BULL'S

WORM DESTROYER,

To my United States and World-Wide Readers.

I HAVE received many testimonials from professional and medical men, as well as from various publications both abroad and at home, which are genuine. The following from a highly educated and popular physician in Georgia, is certainly one of the most sensible communications I have ever received. (I cannot know exactly what he speaks of, and his testimony deserves to be written in letters of gold. I fear what the Doctor says of Bull's Worm Destroyer.)

VILLASOW, WALKER COUNTY, GA.
June 25, 1866

DR. JOHN BULL.—Dear Sir: I have recently given your "Worm Destroyer" several trials, and find it wonderful medicine. It has not failed in a single instance to have the wished-for effect. I am doing a pretty large country practice, and have daily use for some article of the kind. I am free to confess that I know of no more recently recommended by the ablest authors that is so certain and speedy in its effects. On the contrary they are uncertain in the extreme. My wife is a suffering woman, and I feel that I can get relief for her by the use of your medicine directly from you. If I can get it upon easy terms, I shall use a great deal of it. I am aware that the use of such articles is contrary to the teaching of the Bible, and of the great majority of the regular line of M. D.'s, but I see not just cause or good sense in discarding a remedy which we know to be efficient, simple, and which may be ignorant of its constitution. For my part, I shall make it a rule to use all and any means to alleviate suffering humanity, which I am able to accomplish, not hesitating because some one may be ingenious than myself, may have learned to secure first, and secured the right to that knowledge. However, I am by no means an advocate or supporter of the thousands of worthless nostrums that are sold in the country, that purport to cure all manner of disease to which human flesh is heir. Please reply soon, and inform me of your best terms.

I am, sir, most respectfully,
JULIUS P. CLEMENT, M. D.

BULL'S

SARSAPARILLA.

A Good Reason for the Captain's Faith.

Read the Captain's Letter and the Letters from his mother:

Benton Harbours, Mo., April 20, 1866.

DR. JOHN BULL.—Dear Sir: Knowing the efficacy of your Sarsaparilla, and the healing and beneficial qualities it possesses, I send you the following statement of my case.

I was wounded about two years ago—was taken prisoner & confined for sixteen months. Being moved about, my wounds have not healed yet. I have not set up a moment since I was wounded. I was unable to walk, and my general health is impaired and I need something to assist nature. I have more faith in your Sarsaparilla than in any thing else. I wish that that is genuine. Please express me half a dozen bottles and oblige.

I am, sir, most respectfully,
CAPT. C. P. JOHNSON.

St. Louis, Mo.

P. S.—The following was written April 20, 1865, by Mrs. Jennie Johnson, mother of Capt. Johnson.

DR. JOHN BULL.—Dear Sir: My husband, Dr. C. P. Johnson, was a skillful surgeon and physician in central New York, where he died leaving the above C. P. Johnson to my care. At thirteen years of age he had a chronic diarrhoea and scurvy, for which I gave him your Sarsaparilla. In twenty days he was cured for ten years recommended to me in New York, Ohio, and Iowa, for scurvy, fever, and general debility. Perfect success has attended it. The cure effected in some cases of scurvy and fever could be almost miraculous. I am very anxious for my son to again have recourse to your Sarsaparilla. He is fearful of getting a spurious article, leave his writing to you for it. His wounds were terrible, but I believe he will recover. Respectfully,

JENNIE JOHNSON.

BULL'S

CEDRON BITTERS.

Arkansas heard from.
Testimony of Medical Men.

Stone Point, White Co., Ark., May 23, 1869.

DR. JOHN BULL.—Dear Sir: Last February I was in Louisville purchasing drugs, and I got some of your Sarsaparilla and Cedron Bitters.

My son-in-law, who was with me in the store, has been down with rheumatism for some time, commenced on the Bitters, and soon found his general health improved.

Dr. Clet, who has been in bad health, tried them, and also improved.

Dr. Coffee, who has been in bad health for several years—stomach and liver affected—he improved very much by the use of your Bitters. Indeed the Cedron Bitters has given you great popularity in this settlement. I think I could sell a great quantity of your medicines this fall—especially your Cedron Bitters and Sarsaparilla. Ship me via Memphis, care of Rickert & Neely.

Respectfully,
C. B. WALKER.

Manhood: How Lost, How Restored.

Just published, a new edition of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay on the radical cure (without medicine) of SPERMATORRHOEA, or Seminal Weakness, Irregular Seminal Losses, Impotency, Mental and Physical Debility, Impediment to Marriages, etc.; also, Consumption, Emaciation, and Frigidity, caused by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance.

Price, in sealed envelope, only 6 cents.

The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine, or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, and radically.

This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land.

Send under seal, in plain envelope, to any address, postpaid on the receipt of the contents, or postage stamps. Also, Dr. Culverwell's "Marriage Guide," price 25 cents. Address the publishers.

WHEREAS, by an act of the General

Assembly of the State of Alabama, approved the 10th day of October, 1869, it is provided as follows: To-wit: "It shall be the duty of the Probate Judge of each county in this State to designate a newspaper in which all legal advertisements, notices or publications, of any and every character required by law to be made in said county, shall be published; which paper so designated shall be the official organ in and for said county; in which all legal advertisements, notices or publications of any and every character, required by law to be made in and for said County of Calhoun shall be published; said designation to remain until recalled or changed by me."

And the "Jacksonville Republican" being a County paper, published in the Town of Jacksonville, Alabama, and in my opinion, clearly within the provisions of said act— I therefore recall and change my order designating the St. Clair County Eagle, as the official organ for said County of Calhoun, and designate the said Jacksonville Republican as the official organ hereafter, in which all legal advertisements, notices or publications of any and every character required by law to be made in and for said County of Calhoun shall be published. This designation to remain so long as in my opinion, the Editor of said Jacksonville Republican conducts said paper so as to be within the provisions of said act.
